Connecticut Suicide Advisory Board

Per Public Act 22-58 the CTSAB is the coordinating source for suicide prevention across the lifespan. Since 2012, the CTSAB has functioned as the single state-level suicide advisory board (This includes the responsibilities of the former Youth Suicide Advisory Board.) It is cooperatively tri-chaired by the CT Departments of Mental Health and Addiction Services and Children and Families, and a partnering organization.

<td>Goals</td>
<td>Connecticut’s Suicide Prevention Plan 2025 developed by the CTSAB identifies five goals with objectives aligned with the National Strategy for Suicide Prevention, as well as evidence-based strategies informed by national frameworks including the Suicide Prevention Resource Center’s Comprehensive Approach to Suicide Prevention, and the Zero Suicide Approach for Health and Behavioral Healthcare Systems.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Membership</td>
<td>The CTSAB is a diverse, collaborative network of over 1,000 people and 500 agencies representing state and local agencies, profit and non-profits, community and faith-based organizations, hospitals, military, schools, higher education, towns, private citizens, students, survivors, individuals with lived experience, and advocates.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Regional Suicide Advisory Boards</td>
<td>The RBHAOs serve as strategic community partners that are responsible for a range of planning, education, and advocacy of behavioral health needs and services across the lifespan. Each RBHAO coordinates the regional suicide advisory board, and coalition that provides the local infrastructure to build capacity and to promote suicide prevention activities in support of the vision of the CTSAB and as outlined in the State Plan 2025.</td>
